

Tracy L. Pineda
4355 Everett Street
Wheat Ridge, CO 80033
303-919-6303
tracypineda@gmail.com

Objective:

A challenging position in Public Health.

Education:

University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse	1996-1997
University of Wisconsin-Madison	1997-2000
Bachelor of Science in Dietetics (UW-Madison)	May 2000
Universidad de Veracruzana, Xalapa, Mexico	Summer 2000
University of Colorado Health Science Center-Public Health Certificate Program	2004-2005

Qualifications:

Fluent in Spanish, Excel, Word, Access, Publisher and Zoho. 16 years of experience in public health.

Work Experience:

CREA Results	Denver, CO
Director of Strategy and Process	August 2014-August 2016
Director of Operations	January 2018-Current
Program Coordination, grant writing and proposal review, program reports and creating invoice process, database development to capture large volume of community contacts, strategic planning and process implementation for all programs. All operations, finances and human resources functions.

The GrowHaus	Denver, CO
Community Outreach Coordinator	August 2016-December 2017
Program Coordination, grant writing, staff training, community engagement and project management.

Clínica Tepeyac	Denver, CO
Director of Health Promotions	June 2009-August 2014
Complete direction of the Health Promotion Department of Clínica Tepeyac. Including staff hiring, supervision and training. Program creation, grant writing, reports, strategic planning and budget management. Also included creating community collaborations and partnerships with other agencies and programs.

City and County of Broomfield	Broomfield, CO
Tobacco Program Coordinator	May 2006-June 2009
Full-time tobacco coordinator for the Broomfield Tobacco Education and Prevention Partnership. Implement program project plans in the goal areas of adult cessation, youth prevention and cessation, secondhand smoke exposure and program infrastructure and strategic planning.

City and County of Broomfield	Broomfield, CO
WIC/Health Educator	Oct 2002-May 2006
Certification of income eligible women, infants, and children in the community. Including diet, infant feeding, and breastfeeding counseling, anthropometric measurements, general health follow up and referrals to dental, immunization, public health nursing, state insurance, and adolescent pregnancy programs. Also, part-time Tobacco coordinator for Broomfield Tobacco Education and Prevention Partnership. Implement program project plans such as program foundation, promoting effective cessation services and resources, reaching disparate populations, supporting workplace cessation, and supporting dental care providers.

Denver Health	Denver, CO
WIC Educator	May 2002-Oct 2002
Certification of income eligible women, infants, and children in the community. Including diet, infant feeding, and breastfeeding counseling, anthropometric measurements, general health follow up and referrals to dental, immunization, public health nursing, state insurance, and adolescent pregnancy programs.

City of Milwaukee Health Department	Milwaukee, WI
WIC Dietetic Technician	Oct 2000-Mar 2002
Same as above at Denver Health.	